H. DIETZ

THE plot centers around the amusing and thrilling adventures of an American Red Cross Girl, who has gone to France in search of the dashing young officer who has captured her heart. Nothing could be of greater interest at the present time. Dialogue and lyrics are witty; the music is catchy and the action is rapid.

MUSIC SUPERVISORS

Your attention is called especially to the following numbers:

Octavo No.

13,375 AMERICA TRIUMPHANT, by William Arms Fisher. A notable octavo number unusually well adapted to school use, of great strength and dignity. Very singable and well within the range of a high school chorus. Arranged for a two-part chorus with refrain for two parts or four mixed voices. Orchestra parts 50 cents.

13,369 SHOUT ALOUD IN TRIUMPH, by Charles Fonteyn Manney. A strong melody, sturdy in rhythm, it voices both the note of victory and the spirit of rejoicing. Orchestra parts, for large or small orchestra, to be had of the publishers Price, 10 cents each.

COLUMBUS

A Short Cantata for Mixed or Men's Voices

By E. S. Hosmer

Price 25 cents, postpaid

This is a short and easy work, suited in both style and subject to use by schools and amateur choral societies. The music is melodious and not without dramatic touches; it calls for a baritone solo voice. The part-writing makes large use of unisons, and all awkward progressions have been skillfully avoided.

ONE HUNDRED and ONE BEST SONGS

The history of our nation isn't all fact, much of it is feeling, that nameless thrill we know when the Colors pass by. Psychologists teach us that singing a patriotic song makes us feel patriotic because it releases emotions otherwise untouched. Let an hour with "One Hundred and One Best Songs" do the work of a week's lectures. (Patriotic, Sacred, Folk Songs, Songs of Sentiment and Home, all are here, and at a price that spells

CUMULATIVE HARMONY

By WILLIAM J. McCOY

The first complete course in harmony simple and clear enough to interest pupils of high-school age. The various stages of the science are presented, as the title suggests, cumulatively. The student is led, step by step, through the process of theory and practice, and becomes himself a party to the building up of the system.

The volume is unique in emphasizing melody-making in connection with chord construction as a basis for the study. It includes also much excellent preparatory material for counterpoint and composition. Melody-making (as a superstructure) from harmonized given bass sets and the harmonization (as a substratum) of given melodies are introduced almost at the outset and continued with constantly cumulated harmonic elements through the work.

Its simplicity and excellent arrangement fit the book admirably for use in high schools, academies, and colleges.
